Opportunities: Shaping the Future of Aging Together

Connect with decision-makers and professionals from over 400 aging services organizations across Pennsylvania. These providers serve more than 80,000 older adults and employ over 50,000 caregivers daily.

Our conference audience includes CEOs, senior and mid-level managers, and key professionals dedicated to aging services. You'll also engage with experts from allied fields such as fundraising, architecture, marketing, law, finance, and public administration—all working together to shape the future of aging.

Exhibitors Love LeadingAge PA!

This three-day conference features four dedicated EXPO hours, an evening networking reception in the EXPO Hall, and numerous casual networking opportunities throughout the event.

As always, the LeadingAge PA staff were incredibly accommodating and even helped facilitate some introductions. This event is the best state event I attend and is right up there with the national conference and the leadership summit.

To discuss sponsorships or request more information, contact Hattie Gable at 717-790-3941 or hgable@leadingagepa.org.
